Church Notes

The foreign missionary rally at the Christian church Thursday of last week was a very enjoyable and profitable one. There was a good attendance and the ladies of the church looked after the visitors so that they went home with a little more than a "feast of reason."

"I see no reason," says Rev John L. Scudder of Jersey City, "why the face of a Christian should be as long as that of a horse. Personally I intend to get all the legitimate fun out of life that I can, and I get a good deal of it."

The Christian Endeavor Societies of Marshall will have a union service at the Odell Avenue Presbyterian Church next Sunday evening at 6.30 o'clock. A good program has been arranged. All welcome.

Bradford-Morris.

C. E. Bradford, one of Napton's prominent young men, was married on Feb. 17th to Miss Lella May Morris, of Eldorado Springs, Mo., and they have gone to the home prepared by the groom to reside. The young lady is highly spoken of—Mr. Bradford needs no compliments from us. We extend congratulations.

A WET VICTORY

Tuesday's Democratic Primary Results in Mixed Ticket

There was rejoicing among the "wets" when they found that several of their candidates had secured prominent places on the Democratic City ticket Tuesday.

The following is the result of the votes cast:

MAYOR
Ed Page, Jr.	337
C. M. Siler	322
CITY MARSHALL
Ed Maddox	443
F. M. Roberts	175
Chas. R. Hamilton	4
N. S. Truesell	24
N. J. Ussell	12

COLLECTOR

Jas. A. Fisher	547
W. E. Parrish	116

ATTORNEY

Frank E. Rigney, Jr.	367
Percy Neville	291

POLICE JUDGE

Ralph H. Duggins	435
J. H. Ashurst	225

TREASURER

C. B. Vardeman	656
ASSESSOR
A. C. Lewis	333
John W. Sparks	320

ALDERMEN

1st ward, J. B. Prior; 2d L. C. Gaunt;
S. P. Allen; 3d A. Hupp; E. M. Haynie;
4th A. Conway.

The principal objection of the "drys" is the nominee for mayor, although some of them also object to the police judge. They express the belief that Marshall may be run as a wide open city, permitting the saloons to run without license. This is the case in many cities in local option territory. It is done by making arrests of violators, dragging the cases along and finally dismissing them on a small fine. It is hardly likely that the saloons will attempt this in Marshall though.

Leaving the wet and dry question out, most of the Democratic nominees are good men, especially in the case of F. E. Rigney, city attorney, and the councilmen, with one exception. Marshal Maddox and Police Judge Duggins have done their work very satisfactorily.

An urgent request "from Republicans and Democrats" asks us to publish the amount of taxes paid by the nominees. We called on Collector Fisher for the information. He was unable to find the name of Ed Page, Jr. on the personal or real estate tax books. Maddox is taxed on his residence, Fisher on personal property; Rigney on personal property; Duggins on real estate; Lewis on personal property, but unpaid, making him ineligible. As a whole their taxes are very light.

The Republicans will have a mass meeting at the city hall next Tuesday evening, but the probabilities are that they will nominate a good man for mayor only, or possibly for one or two other places, and endorse the balance of the ticket.

Sold His Farm

Chas. Frederick this week sold his farm northeast of Miami to W. L. Yoe, a stock man of Kansas City, for $10,000. The farm contains 300 acres and is well improved. He will give possession on March 15th. Mr. Frederick bought the farm about six years ago for $3000 and besides a handsome profit has made big money on it from the crops. He expects to buy near Marshall.

ANOTHER FIRE VICTIM

Pauline Boyd, Col., is Burned in Horrible Manner.

Pauline, the thirteen-year-old daughter of Wm. Boyd, residing east of the College, met a terrible death Friday evening as the result of an accident, although it is unknown how it was caused.

The girl lived with her father, brother and sister. As soon as supper was over Friday evening all went out except the unfortunate girl. About seven o'clock she was seen coming out of the house with her clothing afire and ran towards Alfred Field's, adjoining. Before reaching there her father overtook her and put out the fire and then carried her into the Field's home and summoned Dr. Spotts. He found her body badly burned and the child suffering awfully. She died about eleven o'clock that night.

Fire at Terrell & DeGarmo's

The "Bologna House" at Terrell & DeGarmo's meat market became overheated and caught on fire Tuesday morning. The fire department was called but the fire was under control when it arrived. There was no serious damage.

The Merchant of Venice

This popular play will be given at the new high school auditorium by the high school pupils tonight (Friday.) Be sure to attend as you'll be well repaid in doing so.

Fire at County Jail.

About nine o'clock Saturday night the barn in the rear of the county jail was discovered to be on fire. The fire department responded promptly and put the fire out in short order without serious damage. The sky was lit up so brightly for awhile by the fire that many persons at a distance became much alarmed and thought the business section of Marshall was afire.

Gone to State Convention

As far as we are able to ascertain our full delegation of nine went to the Republican State Convention at St. Louis Wednesday. Dr. W. H. Black went as proxy for W. E. Shackelford of Napton and W. W. Humphrey as proxy for J. H. Berlekamp of Little Rock.

High School Notes

Dr. Fairchild will be with us to lecture next Friday evening, March 6th.

Henry Irving and Ellen Terry for years presented the Merchant of Venice; but you would not have been nearly so interested in their play as you will be in ours. Just come out and see. Friday evening Feb. 28th the "Merchant of Venice" up-to-date, presented at M. H. S. in our new auditorium by some of our best talent. Be a true Missourian, come out and be shown.

On Friday evening March 13th, Dr. Fruit of Wm. Jewel will lecture on the character Portroyal, in Dicken's Pickwick Papers, followed by a reading of the Ancient Mariner, illustrated with stereopticon slides.

1908

We are to have the Art Display in our M. H. S. building between March 18 to 22. The catalogues are now on sale at the principal's office for 10c.

We wish to thank Misses Ella and Anna Booth for the pictures of George and Martha Washington, which they so kindly presented to us.

The people of Marshall who failed to see the basket ball game Tuesday night do not realize what an athletic treat they missed. Although we did go down to defeat we feel justly proud of our team, and that the defeat by a score of 36 to 23 was no means ignominious. Terrell as usual did star playing and his playing was a college class from start to finish. Peecher the reliable left forward and threw 6 free goals over a swift guard LaRue and Whitman played an unusually strong game.

On the whole the steady team work and fast team work of both teams made the game exciting.

Kemper first class team gave the home team more than enough to do. Wesket played the game for Kemper, and threw sensational goals. Kemper plays a good, clean, scientific game. Few goals were made on either side.

Gabbert-King

Willie L. Gabbert and Mrs. Cora L. King of this city were married in Kansas City the first of the week and have returned to Marshall and will make their home on the Burnett farm southeast of town.
